

ACT AS AN AGENT FOR SOCIAL CHANGE.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS IN DRAMA THERAPY

Turn your passion for drama into a career that positively impacts others' emotional, physical, and social well-being. Through Lesley's graduate programs in expressive therapies, build a foundation in mental health counseling theory and practice as well as the psychotherapeutic uses of improvisation, storytelling, and performance. Join our diverse community of artists and practitioners in our on-campus or low-residency programs, and discover how to employ creative expression as an instrument for social change.
